

Fellowship Awardees for 2012-2013

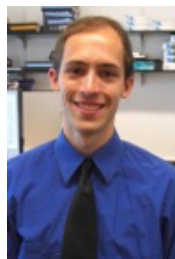

Michael Joseph Ardolino

Sponsor: Merck/Division of Organic Chemistry Fellowship
Boston College
Advisor: James P. Morken

Biographical Information: He is currently a fourth-year student working with Professor James P. Morken to develop new catalytic methodologies for the enantioselective manipulation of allylic and related systems.

Undergrad: Bowdoin College, Brunswick, ME, BA Chemistry

Adam Goetz

Sponsor: Organic Reactions/Organic Syntheses
University of California, Los Angeles
Advisor: Neil Garg

Biographical Information: Adam is currently a 4th year graduate student working with Prof. Neil Garg on understanding and controlling selectivity in reactions of heterocyclic arynes.

Undergrad: Carleton College, BA Chemistry

Aaron T. Herrmann

Sponsor: Genentech Fellowship
University of California, Santa Barbara
Advisor: Armen Zakarian

Biographical Information: Aaron is currently a 4th year student in Armen Zakarian's laboratory working on a diversity oriented approach to the synthesis of Nuphar Alkaloids.

Undergrad: University of Wisconsin, Madison, BS Chemistry and Biochemistry

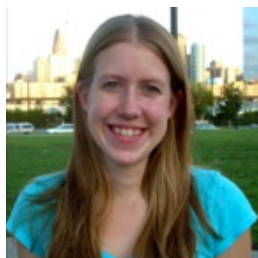

Jeffrey C. Holder

Sponsor: Boehringer Ingelheim Fellowship
California Institute of Technology
Advisor: Brian M. Stoltz

Biographical Information: Jeff Holder is currently a 4th year graduate student working with Prof. Brian Stoltz on the development of palladium-catalyzed asymmetric conjugate addition reactions and their application in total synthesis.

Undergrad: Harvard University, AB Chemistry

Alison Metz

Sponsor: Organic Syntheses Fellowship
University of Pennsylvania
Advisor: Marisa Kozlowski

Biographical Information: She is currently a 4th year student working with Prof. Marisa Kozlowski studying the identification and synthesis of novel hydrogen-bonding catalysts.

Undergrad: The Pennsylvania State University, BS Chemistry

Rebecca Murphy

Sponsor: Organic Syntheses Fellowship
University of California, Berkeley
Advisor: Richmond Sarpong

Biographical Information: She is currently a 4th year student working with Prof. Richmond Sarpong on the synthesis of compounds within the Lycopodium alkaloid class of natural products.

Undergrad: University of Rochester, BS Chemistry

John Duy Nguyen

Sponsor: Amgen Fellowship
Boston University
Advisor: Corey R. J. Stephenson

Biographical Information: John is currently a 4th year graduate student working in Prof. Corey Stephenson's laboratory investigating the use of visible light to mildly and selectively generate carbon-centered radicals.

Undergrad: University of California, Irvine, BS Chemistry

Bradley D. Rose

Sponsor: Troyansky Fellowship
University of Oregon
Advisor: Michael M. Haley

Biographical Information: He is a 4th year student in Prof. Michael M. Haley's laboratory working on the development of highly conjugated organic molecules for use in organic electronics.

Undergrad: Illinois State University, BS Chemistry
